

BLACK POWDER TAVERN

HISTORICAL DINNER SERIES THIRD TUESDAY OF EVERY MONTH ★ 5:30 P.M.

Join us as we learn about the American Revolution and enjoy dishes reminiscent of those served during Colonial times.

COQ AU VIN

Red wine braised chicken with bacon, mushrooms and onion
Reflecting the rustic, resourceful cooking of the late 18th century, slow-cooked chicken dishes were common in civilian and officers' kitchens.

PAN-FRIED COD

Panko-breaded with lemon, parsley and tartar sauce
Cod was a common and reliable food source in the colonial America, making it a fitting representation of the simple, sustaining fare

POTATO CAKES

An excellent way to use any leftover potatoes was to either deep fry or bake them for later consumption.

VEGETABLE MEDLEY

Beets, turnips and carrots were a staple of the Colonial diet since they stored excellently during winter.

CHOCOLATE TART

A basic, but delicious end to our evening! We are featuring our Flourless Chocolate Brownie Custard in place of this confectionery delight.
